CHARACTERISTICS

Driven
Once I know what I want to achieve, I don't stop until i do.

Eager to learn
I love to study up and keep on top of my points of interest.

Structured
I work best under pressure of a deadline or the delivery of a standalone project.

Ambitious
I like to excel at what I do and prove my worth to my peers.

I'm an aspiring front-end web developer with a lot to learn but an unmatched eagerness to do so. I'm flexible and I do my best work when I'm challenged. I make other things like music when I'm not developing and like to include that in my work.
